LANIAKEA TEA ROOMS

A long-felt want is now realized in Honolulu. Miss Helen Alexander having made possible a tea room and rest room, where one may go when tired out and have a cheery cup of tea and for the out-of-town woman the pleasant rest room with an inviting punee, where an hour or more may be spent after a strenuous morning of shopping, will prove a boon. An electric iron will be near and ready to press the wrinkled gown and a bath may also be had if one wishes it. It is a place that will appeal strongly not only to the one who belongs here but to the tourist it will be a haven of rest and comfort. A gift shop is also connected with the establishment and here all sorts of dainties may be purchased in the needle and craft line. This department is in charge of Miss Dorothy Hillier. In the rest room is a table, phone and here also is a writing desk and stationery. Several artists have quarters on the Richards street side of the premises. Here also is a most attractive grass hut, where Hawaiian women may be found weaving lauhala mats and baskets. Orders for mats and baskets of every variety will be taken. A light luncheon will be served daily, and Mrs. F. Schlimm has charge of the kitchen department. Miss Alexander has fortified herself with efficient coworkers and every one patronizing Laniakea tea rooms will be more than pleased. No dinners will be served unless they are specially ordered. Bridge and lunch parties may be arranged for every Wednesday and Saturday, from 4 to 6, a Hawaiian quartet will furnish music and a tea dance will be the diversion offered. On Wednesday the crowd of guests that overflowed from the house into the garden bespoke its popularity. Splendid music was enjoyed. The rooms are delightfully furnished and finished, and the walls hung with lovely pictures and draperies. Those holding table privileges on Wednesday were Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes, Mrs. Howell Clinton, Mrs. Sara Newcomb, Mrs. William O. Smith, Mrs. W. Habbitt, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Anna Lackland, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Mrs. Samuel Baker, Mrs. E. L. Spaulding, Mrs. E. W. Maxwell, Mrs. Van Tassel, Miss Margaret McIntyre, Mrs. C. H. Kline, Mrs. C. H. Huxtable, Mrs. C. A. Mackintosh, Mrs. Henry Holmes, Mrs. David Case, Mrs. Florence La Mott, Mrs. White, Mrs. George Angus, Mrs. Zeave, Mrs. Ayers, Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. Edward Dekum, Mrs. C. Clarke, Mrs. Frank Andrade, Mrs. Charles Atherton, Mrs. George Potter, Miss Josephine Soper, Mrs. William Love, Mrs. Ferdinand Hedemann and Mrs. Charles R. Forbes.

MR. AND MRS. A. P. TAYLOR'S LUNCHEON

At the Commercial Club today Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Taylor entertained a company of guests at a luncheon with Princess Abigail Kawanakoa as the guest of honor. The tables were covered with baskets overflowing with flaming red ixoras and Transvaal roses. Long fronds of maidenhair fern lent a cooling touch of green. After luncheon the guests motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and were enjoying an afternoon of bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor's guests are Princess Abigail Kawanakoa, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mayor and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, wife of the commanding officer of the Hawaiian department, U. S. A. Both Gen. and Mrs. Evans are very popular and it is with regret that social Honolulu sees the retirement of the general and the consequent removal to the mainland of this service couple.

Mrs. John Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Commander and Mrs. Victor Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Matteo Sandona, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gardley, Maj. and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mrs. Jack Ena, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Eben P. Low, Mr. John McCrosson and Miss Mildred Clemens. The name cards were very unique, representing the feather cloak of royalty (Ahuu) in every one of the symbols, hand painted and very original.

LIEUT. EDWARD C. ROSE A DINNER HOST

Lieut. Edward C. Rose entertained very informally at dinner at the University Club on Tuesday evening. The table was very pretty with its central decoration—a basket of la France roses and lace ferns and a great tulle butterfly bow on the basket handle. Lieut. Rose's guests were Dr. and Mrs. White, Miss McKinley, Col. and Mrs. Frank R. Keefer, Lieut. Frank Riley and Lieut. John Smith, Jr. After dinner the party motored to the Moana, where the dance was enjoyed.

"THE MONASTERY" DINNER

"The Monastery" at Waikiki was the setting for a very charming dinner on Thursday evening. A rock crystal basket occupied the center of the table, it being filled with la France roses and pansies. An evening of music was the pleasure of the guests after dinner.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Miss Helen Scott, Miss Georgia Pursell, Miss Berkeley, Mr. Frank Howe, Mr. Robert Scott and Mr. C. D. Wright.

AN ARTIST RETURNS TO HAWAII

Mr. Matteo Sandona, the well known portrait painter of San Francisco, was an arrival in the Wilhelmina for a visit here, with which he will combine business and pleasure. Mrs. Sandona accompanies her husband.

This is not the first visit of this artist as he first came to Honolulu about 12 years ago. He returned four years ago, and answering the call he is here again. During his first visit here he did a life-sized portrait of Princess David Kawanakoa. The position is a standing one and shows to great advantage the fine figure of the princess. At the same time he did one of Mrs. Walter Macfarlane that is a speaking likeness of this very pretty woman. Both of the portraits hang in the homes of the subjects.

The University Club will be the setting for his present exhibition of work which will begin next Monday.

An interesting painting is that of the late Thelma Parker Smart and little Richard Smart, her son. One of the very finest of Sandona's pictures is of the Hon. Sanford B. Dole. The Sandona's plan to be here at least three months and will receive a great deal of social attention from Honolulu folks.

MR. FRANK MOSS' MUSICALS

The lanai of Miss Helen Alexander's new tea garden was the setting for a dinner and musicals given by Mr. Frank Moss on Monday evening. After dinner the guests were entertained listening to Miss Pearl Sutherland, pianist. Mr. David Stone, contralto, and Prof. Edwin Ideler, violinist. It was an evening of charm and pleasure to Mr. Moss' guests, who were Capt. and Mrs. David Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Love, Major and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Buchly, Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Miss Pearl Sutherland, Miss May Sutherland, Miss Florence Butler, Prof. Edwin Ideler, Mr. Lathrop Tucker, Mr. Pettijohn and Mr. William Lewers.

MR. AND MRS. C. W. CASE DEERING'S DINNER

Around a table which was extremely beautiful with its gold basket filled with American Beauty roses, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering entertained a company of friends on Tuesday evening. After dinner dancing was the diversion for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Deering's guests were Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. Isabelle Howell Clinton, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. H. B. Waller, Col. T. N. Horn, Col. William S. Guinnard, Col. William Weigel and Major Herbert Williams.

Harry Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Miss Capps, Miss Williams, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Mrs. Ben Conrad, Mr. Harry Hoffman, Mr. Arch Brown, Mr. Merwin Carson and others. Music and dancing were enjoyed after which a buffet supper was served.

MRS. CARL WIDEMANN'S POI LUNCHEON

Princess David Kawanakoa was the guest of honor at a poi luncheon given on Monday by Mrs. Carl Widemann. Golden daylight lilies made the table radiant and soft mountain fern lent the touch of green. Mrs. Widemann's guests were Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. A. P. Taylor, Mrs. Mary Monroe, Mrs. Mary Beckley, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. Edmund Norrie, Miss Margaret McIntyre, Miss Irma Wodehouse, Col. Samuel Parker, and Mr. Ernest Parker.

MRS. CHARLES CHILLINGWORTH'S TEA TABLE

A pretty tea table at the Laniakea opening on Wednesday was the one at which Mrs. Charles Chillingworth presided as hostess. The friends at this table were Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. I. M. Stainback, Mrs. Francis Reed, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mrs. Gustave Schaefer, Mrs. James Haynes, Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr. and Mrs. William B. Lymer.

THE COMING SHAFER HOPS

The officers in charge of the Fort Shafter hops have done a wise thing in arranging the dates for the Shafter hops well in advance, thus giving every one who is planning a dancing party the opportunity of knowing which evenings are occupied. The dates set for the hops are Friday, November 17, Wednesday, November 29, Friday, December 15 and Friday, December 29.

MRS. GIDEON VAN POOLE'S TEA TABLE

Mrs. Gideon Van Poole entertained a table of friends at Laniakea tea room on Wednesday of this week.
